

President Kikwete acknowledges Mkono & Co Corporate Social Responsibility

On October 13th, Oswald Mang'ombe High School for Boys in Butuguri (Mara Region) was officially handed over to President Jakaya Mrisho Kikwete by Hon. Nimrod E. Mkono during a cheerful ceremony. The school was built through a development association, supported by Mkono & Co Advocates, and the community of the nearby villages. Currently over 200 boys receive their A-level education at Oswald Mang'ombe. The main focus of the school is natural sciences and languages. See the pictures below.

President Kikwete visits an English lesson at Oswald Mang'ombe High School.

During a biology experiment in the laboratory.

President Kikwete and his wife look on as a student performs an experiment.

Makongoro Nyerere, son of the late Mwalimu Nyerere, the Regional Commissioner for Mara Region, President Kikwete and Hon. Nimrod E. Mkono attend the official celebrations for the handing-over.